

A child's drawing of Earth using colored pencils. The background is filled with dense, swirling blue lines representing the sky or oceans. A large green area in the center represents the landmasses. At the top, there are orange and yellow strokes representing the sun. The text is written in black ink on the green landmass area.

Do not trash the planet

Do not litter our home

Put your cans and plastics bottles in the recycling bin like to keep the Earth clean