

Beauty doesn't come from Makeup, blush, and Creams Instead it comes from forests
The rocks, and birds, and streams

Pretty isn't Perfect

but it doesn't cost a dime Slightly it's getting covered up litter is not so kind

Animals are dying

Because of your trash and mine fading until they are no more how can we be so blind

Flowers are a lighter note

Being green is not cliché
