Keynote Address

Sister Mary Virginia Orna
Professor, College of New Rochelle
Editor-at-Large, Chemical Heritage Magazine

Sister Mary Virginia Orna, O.S.U. (Order of Saint Ursula) has lectured and published widely in the areas of color chemistry and archaeological chemistry. She is active in several divisions of the American Chemical Society, having served as chair of the History and Chemical Education Divisions. She is a recipient of several major awards, including the 1996 James Flack Norris Award and the 1999 ACS George C. Pimentel Award in Chemical Education. She is presently president of ChemSource Inc., a major effort in chemistry teacher preparation and enhancement funded by the National Science Foundation.

We gratefully acknowledge the ACS for sponsorship of this event and funding of the awards and Sister Orna for speaking at our awards dinner.
