

Activity Number Three

Activity Date: 3-4 April 2019

Overview:

Iraqi Chapter of American Chemical Society and Department of Chemistry in the College of Science/University of Basrah organize a workshop started on Wednesday 3/4/2019 entitled (How to Improve Your Writing Skiles). The term academic writing is often used to refer to formal writing assignments. As a researcher, anytime you write an essay for a particular class, you are engaging in academic writing. The goal of academic writing is to make an intelligent argument for or against something. A writer must understand proper format, grammar, punctuation, citation, and the techniques that can be used to bring it all together.
